

Appendix X

Student Contact Time at High Schools

A committee will be formed with equal representation of administration and SEA members from the three High Schools to study student contact time. Currently teachers instruct six of seven periods during the instructional day. Alternatives to this model will be explored. A written report will be presented to District administration and SEA leadership no later than March 1, 2019.